

Summerthought

Summerthought Publishing cares passionately about Alberta, the Canadian Rockies, and books. We are a vibrant, proudly independent publisher producing books that we believe in and that we think readers will enjoy.

BASED IN ALBERTA Independent and locally owned. Summerthought has been owned and operated by Andrew Hempstead and Dianne Melton since 2004.

BESTSELLERS Our books regularly appear on bestseller lists, including A is for Alberta, which was the bestselling book by an Alberta publisher in 2023 (Book Manager), and the Canadian Rockies Trail Guide, with 270,000 copies sold.

LOVING LOCAL All of our authors are local, based here in Alberta, and our books are printed in Canada, even if it costs us a little more.

CONNECTING WITH YOU We do our own distribution, so you'll be dealing directly with the publisher, not a third-party rep.

WHERE YOU WON'T FIND OUR BOOKS Unlike many of our competitors, we don't offer huge discounts to get our books into big box grocery stores, so your customers will never see our books discounted elsewhere.

KEEPING IT SIMPLE Standard 40% discount, no minimums, no credit checks, free shipping on orders over $150, and full returns. Ordering our books couldn't be simpler!
